 NOTE.—There was an Army of the Mississippi in the Western Department organized and commanded by General Bragg in March, 1862; this army was denominated Army of Tennessee in November, 1862. Another army, serving in Department of Mississippi and East Louisiana in 1862 and 1863, under General Pemberton, was also called Army of the Mississippi. On May 12, 1864, General Polk designated his command as the Army of the Mississippi. As no distinction seems to have been made between these armies in some of the volume indexes (especially the later volumes) none has been made in this index.

NOTE.—Constituted May 8, 1862, and on Nov. 25, 1862, designated as Trans-Alleghany or Western Department of Virginia. The territory embraced in this department extended "west to the eastern boundary of Kentucky and as far west of that boundary as circumstances may allow." On Sept. 27, 1864, the jurisdiction of the commanding officer was extended over "the reserve forces of East Tennessee." On Feb. 20, 1865, Lieutenant-General Early's command was extended to embrace this territory and was designated the Department of Western Virginia and East Tennessee. This command has been variously indexed in the several volumes as—
Southwestern Virginia, Department of Southwestern Va. and East Tenn., Dept. of Western Virginia, Department of Western Va. and East Tenn., Dept. of Pages 3, 5. For Aug. 10–22, 1863, read Aug. 10–23, 1863, and substitute for Raid on the Mississippi Central Railroad, etc., the following: Expeditions from the Big Black River, Miss., and La Grange, Tenn., to Grenada, Miss., with skirmishes at Craven's Plantation, Miss. (14th); Grenada, Miss. (17th); Payne's Plantation, near Grenada, Miss. (18th); Panola, Miss. (20th), and at Coldwater, Miss. (21st).

Pages 3, 11. Strike out Aug. 12–23, 1863.—Expedition from Memphis, Tenn., etc.

Pages 5, 11. Transfer list of reports, numbered 1 to 6, on page 11 to page 5, and insert in proper order under list of reports on that page, rearranging the numbers of the reports.

Pages 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23. Running headline should be changed to read Expeditions to Grenada, Miss., etc.

Pages 7, 11, 12, 13, 19, 21. Change numbers of reports to correspond with numbers as rearranged on page 5.

Page 127. Ducat to Rosecrans, third line, after point, strike out the comma and insert a period; also in fourth line, after re-enforcements, strike out the period and insert a comma. The new sentence to begin with Although and end with yet, in fifth line.

Page 1067. For Capt. Wm. B. Gillespie read Capt. Charles B. Gillespie, and add Actg. before Asst. in line following.

Pages 1081–1166. Strike out foot-note No circumstantial reports on file, wherever it occurs.

PART 2.

Page 3. For Aug. 10–22, 1863, read Aug. 10-23, 1863, and substitute for Raid on the Mississippi Central Railroad, etc., the following: Expeditions from the Big Black River, Miss., and La Grange, Tenn., to Grenada, Miss., with skirmishes at Craven's Plantation, Miss. (14th); Grenada, Miss. (17th); Payne's Plantation, near Grenada, Miss. (18th); Panola, Miss. (20th); and at Coldwater, Miss. (21st). Also strike out Aug. 12–23, 1863.—Expedition from Memphis, Tenn., etc.

In † foot-note, strike out All such are designated in the Index.
